BLANCHE SWEET,

Star in "The Warrens of Virginia," at the Auditorium Monday and Tuesday

the American Civil war is said to b the most stupendous war drama ever produced for the film in this country, and a veritable army of actors was employed in taking the picture.

Many of the most exciting incidents in The Warrens of Virginia take place in camp or on the actual field of battle. We see soldiers in ambush and sol diers charging and soldiers in the trenches. And the confederate and mnion armies, as represented on this films, are armies indeed—not mere groups of men, but battalions and regiments, all clad and equipped to the minutest degree in the exact manner Among the foremost artists appearing with Miss Sweet are House Peters (who is the northern hero of the cast), James Neill, Mabel Van Buren, P. E. Peterson, Dick La Reno, Sydney Deane, Raymond Hatton, Milton Brown, Dick La Strange, Lucien Littlefield, Gerald Ward, Mildred Harris and Mrs. Lewis McCord.

Among the Universal photoplays on the bill for Monday and Tuesday will be The Golden Wedding, a drama by the Laemmule company, and Mumps, a funny comedy picture, with Rosemary Theby and George Myers.

Today for the last time John Emerson will be seen in the five-reel come-dy drama The Bachelor's Romance, one of the finest photoplays yet seen on the Paramount programme.

DAVIS THEATRE NEXT WEEK.

Another Big Keith Act "California" With 10 People and a Car Load of Scenery,

An altogether delightful and novel feature act is California, a Jessy Lasky production appearing at this popular vaudeville house for the first half of next week. The charming musical play t or sketch is staged in Southern California just outside the mis-sion of San Juan. A party of Ameri-can engineers is running a railroad can engineers is running a railroad through the country and the right of way takes it through the mission grounds necessitating the razing of the ancient structure. The mission settlement is the home of beautiful California, the heroine of the venerable padresand a number of Mexicans who have prayed, entreated and threat ned the "Americans" in an endeavor to get them to change the deavor to get them to change the course of the road enough to save the course of the road enough to save the mission. The young American engineer swears he is not obeying or ders. California makes him fall in love with her hoping she may then influence him to spare the settlement. Incidentally when the young engineer declares his love and proposes marriage, California finds that she, too, reciprocates, but true to a vow to the Mexicans deliver her lover into cap—number of other tournaments to be run tivity. Another white man, an Englishman, is also captured and a double hanging is planned. It develops, however, at the psychological moment that the Englishman owns the road and he is only too gind to change the course of the road and spare the mission, whereupon all grievances are reduced. This little plot serves to introduce some delightful vocal work of detidedly high chass. In fact, California might be called musical comedy. There is some splendid acting, and plenty of kumor. The costumes and stage settlings are unusually attractive and the sketch is a decided movelty.

The Alnitual Masterpicture for Monday and Tuesday is The Absentee, a piled.

The Connecticut committee of the commission for keller in legium shas set to work to load, a "Connecticut food ship" jointly with the international commission, which has agreed to meet whatever is raised here dollar for dollar. All administration expenses are guaranteed; every cent contributed will reach Belgium in the shape of food.

The commission has offered to meet whatever we raise, dollar for dollar. Connecticut's half of this shipl had will comedy will also be shown on this bill.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

Mary Pickford and Charlie Chaplin Appearson Today's Big Bill.

On today's big programme at the Colonial theatre is the mammoth three reel spectacle entitled Out of the Ruins by the Edison cast, with Mabel Tru-helle and the damous Pat O'Malley, assisted by fascinating Gladys Hulette. This is a fire picture embodying some of the most spectacular and realistic fire scenes ever photographed for the screen. The effect at the close of the second part, when the whole wall of a building collapses, with Miss Trunelle in the midst of the raging cataclysm, has never been surpassed. One scene shows the principals escaping scene shows the principals escaping from the fire on a rope suspended over the seething interior. The rope catches fire and the couple, are dashed against the walls of the burning building, just as it falls. Mary Pickford is seen in one of her greatest successes entitled As It is in Life and will charm all by her bewitching loveliness. Charlie Chaplin appears in the roaring comedy in the Park, a medley of scene shows the principals escaping ing comedy in the Park, a mediev of mischievous and convulsing pranks, and Cutey's Sister is a brilliant Vitagraph comedy with Wallie Van, Clssy Fitz Gerald and many others. Don't miss today's star feature programme.
Coming Monday, Charlie Chaplin in a two-reel comedy entitled A Woman.
This is the season comedy success.
